

Hi5 conducts selection trials across 8 centers for new beginners.

Back to School! Hi5 conducted its selection trials for the kids across 8 centers. The students were enthusiastic and full of energy with a spark of joy bursting from within. The students were tested on 6 major parameters like sprinting, jumping, motor skills, etc. Two batches of 30 students each full of hope and joy were selected. The same started their beginner level training from August 1st.

Hi5 distributes jerseys at St Arnold center.

A new day and Hi5 marches on to St Arnold's school in Andheri east, St Arnold's is a semi private school with a basketball court. This generous school has allowed Hi5 to run its area program for last 2 years in its court. This is a free program for the school and the children were distributed jerseys.

Hi5 Rakhi making and friendship day celebration.

The festive mood kicks in as the children from Hi5 are lit up and are in a realm of joy. The kids made and tied rakhis to each other while having a qala time. The kids also celebrated friendship day with tying friendship bands to each other which embraces a strong bond of friendship and teamwork.
